Can honestly say this company really care about their customers. They moved us out, put things into storage then moved us into a new place and their customer service at every step was first class. Special mention to Heather and Kelly who provided lots of updates, help and advice along the way. Sign of a classy company is how they deal with problems and when there was a relatively minor issue it was dealt with sympathetically, promptly and professionally. After 8 moves in 8 years, I'm staying put for a while but would have no hesitation in using / recommending Cambridge Removals again in the future. Thank you
