Arrived promptly at pre-arranged time. Both men worked conscientiously throughout the 8 hours they were here. They carried out a number of tasks including cleaning and re-pointing a large patio to a high standard. They had all their own tools required for the various jobs and left everywhere clean and tidy. We certainly expect to use them again.

From initial contact to completion today the communication and work carried out has been outstanding. Despite living 200 miles away I would have no hesitation in recommending Barry and Michele. Their understanding of a delicate situation of working with my mother with health needs has been sensitively dealt with from the moment they arrived for work to completion. I have had regular contact throughout with daily photos to show me work completed.
