18-Dec-2014	They took 2½ months to contact me after I paid for an order in advance. They apologised Business reply: We would confirm that the delay was caused by fabric shortages with our suppliers. We did inform the customer concerned of the delay by an answerphone message but have since changed our procedures to ensure we speak directly with the customer in the event a similar situation occurs. We apologised to the customer and applied a discount on their delayed order. They subsequently placed two further orders with us without further problem
