I have used Adam's Locks on a couple of occasions, once in an emergency and once to help with securing my property having found out my locks did not meet my insurance requirements. Both times I have been delighted with the service that I received. Adam is not only prompt, efficient and friendly but he seems to want to find the best possible solution rather than just the one that makes the most money. He takes time to explain the situation and provide advice before completing the work diligently. Its nice to have a tradesperson like this stored safely in my phone for those times of need.
