Richard Scott has proved very reliable and we have used him for both exterior and interior decorating. The most recent job he has undertaken for us was painting in a study and bathroom, but we will be having him back again in the near future. We have used Richard's services over a number of years and now go straight to him to see if he is available whenever we need work done. He is efficient, tidy and keeps disruption to a minimum. We have been very pleased with the quality of his work.

This is the third or fourth time I have used RDS and I tend to plan my next job with them every time they finish the current one. They're always busy and I'm happy to make plans ahead to make sure I get their service - I've just booked them for three months from now for the next work. I would wholeheartedly recommend them. Always friendly, timely and professional, and the work is always done beautifully, on time, and to budget.

with every aspect of Richard's work and are planning to ask him to repeat the process in our dining room. We have no reservation in recommending him.

Richard was very conscientious and his work on our bedrooms and hallway was of a very high quality. He answered all our questions prior to starting, was very tidy throughout and very reasonably priced.
