27-Nov-2014	Mr Kempshall attended to give estimate exactly as agreed - had his slippers with him to enter the house, provided a realistic assessment of the work, a prompt and acceptable estimate. He turned up on time, tackled a job that he hadn't had a previous opportunity to complete, so he researched it, obtained the parts and got it right. He also did a different job that required initiative and attention to detail. More important I felt he was entirely trustworthy to work for my elderly Mum. Thanks for the work
