A very helpful and friendly person. They are very clean and tidy during and on completion of the work. The work was excellent it is clear they care about people and their work. We had full trust in them and they did not let us down. The work was completed when they said it would be. We cannot praise Grant and colleague enough. Will definitely use them again, and recommend to others.

I cannot fault the quality of the work provided by this company. Grant and Alex were friendly and very helpful. Tidy workers and took trouble to protect all areas from any possible fall out from their work. Prompt quote received and work completed as this quote. I will use them again and would highly recommend them.
