Phil and his team did a wonderful job with the installation of my new kitchen and also the additional painting, decorating that went with this. The workmanship was meticulous and performed to a very high standard. A big plus is that Phil is very easy to talk to, and if I had any concerns of there was anything I didn't understand, he was very patient in explaining the process. Phil would be the first person I would call if I wanted any further work doing and would not hesitate in recommending him and his team
