| 06-Jan-2019 | What a great team! We found Andy as our requirement at the start was quite specific around the finish we wanted. Not only did he provide options and guidance on what would deliver what we were after but the quality of craftsmanship throughout the job and the overall finish is incredible. They were professional, trustworthy, clean and considerate which is really hard to find in good tradesmen. Would not hesitate to recommend to anyone wanting a quality job done and will be using them again this year for our next project. Thanks guys! |
| 21-Dec-2018 | Excellent professional service. Delighted with the finished floor. |
| 05-Dec-2018 | Thanks to Andy and sons to save our bathroom! They did a fantastic job, they took care of the previous tiler's mess! and did it all again with excellent quality. Fantastic finish, attention to details is amazing, clean, fast, on time and very attentive. Thanks Andy and Andrew :) Highly Recommended! |
| 28-Jun-2018 | We left Andy to tile our bathroom whilst we were away on holiday. All during our holiday we were looking forward to seeing our new bathroom, especially as Andy was sending regular photos updates. The first thing we did when we returned was to go and have a look and we weren't disappointed. The workmanship was exceptional, all the tiles have equal gaps between them and the walls are perfectly level. Even though three weeks has past we can't help admiring the work that Andy has done. He used dust sheets and carpet protectors so there was no damage. We are really pleased with the work and would definitely recommend Andy Carroll Tiling. |
| 13-Apr-2018 | Andy and his son provided us with a faultless service. They did an excellent job at a reasonable price and in the time they said they would. They were very careful to protect the rest of the house and cleared up completely at the end. Very highly recommended. |
| 08-Dec-2017 | Andy provided valuable guidance throughout the process of renovating the whole bathroom. The tiling of | both walls and floor have been finished to a high standard.

06-Dec-2017	Very good service. Our tiles look like new
25-Jul-2017	If you want cheap and cheerful, Andy is not your man. He does the job properly, takes care and provides a very high level of customer service. Actually turns up on time every day and gets on with the job. Andy and son Andrew have the necessary skills and equipment to do a good job.
21-Jul-2017	We were looking for grout restoration experts after finding mould in our en-suites and also crumbling grout in our family bathroom. We liked the idea of using a local, family business and were encouraged by the reviews Andy and Andrew had received. We now know why they are rated so highly. They are nice guys, extremely professional and they both place a strong emphasis on attention to detail. The result is that the bathrooms look new. The en-suites were thoroughly cleaned, regouted and resealed where necessary and issues with underfloor heating and an uneven floor in the family bathroom were identified and fixed with the minimum of fuss. They did a fantastic job and we wouldn't hesitate to use them again.
17-May-2017	Not a large job (tiling a splashback area behind cooker and resealing a splashback mirror in bathroom), but it was all done beautifully, and with great professionalism. We've had a lot of work done for us over the years, and this ranks with the very best. And extremely nice people.
12-Feb-2017	Andy and Andrew completed a full re-fit and re-tiling of our shower including replacement of floor and tanking. They have done 2 jobs for us previously and just as before, they did an excellent job. They were prompt, worked cleanly and carried out every aspect of the job to a high standard. Their workmanship and attention to detail is consistently impressive and I have no hesitation in recommending them.
20-Jul-2016	Andy restored the grouting and silicon in the shower area and kitchen of our on site accommodation at CFCCA. A friendly and highly professional service, very pleased with the results!
15-Apr-2016	If you want a job doing properly you ask an expert & that is Andy & his son. They have re-laid my kitchen floor to a superb standard & quality that should last for decades. They both also have very good customer communication skills & so are very easy to work with. This is definitely a "cowboy free zone"
19-Feb-2016	Andy Carroll & Son Tiling Ltd., completed the tiling of our bathroom to a very high standard. Andy clearly takes pride in his work, which is reflected in the quality achieved.
14-Oct-2015	Andy and his son came to rectify some poor work done by another company. They came to quote first and took loads of time to look at the issues we had and explain what they thought the problem was and the

	best solution. When it came to the work they came when they said they would were extremely careful to cover carpets and other areas in protective plastic and work sheets and tidied up every night before leaving. Extremely pleased with quality of work and would have them back without hesitation
05-Jun-2015	Andy did a fabulous job tiling our shower room. He's a lovely guy, pays excellent attention to detail and left the place very clean and tidy. I hope to use Andy for more jobs in the future and would recommend him to anyone.
01-Jun-2015	Andy was lovely and did a fabulous job tiling our shower room. I will hopefully be using Andy for a couple of other jobs this year. Excellent attention to detail and left the place clean and tidy. Very highly recommended.
31-May-2015	Andy Carroll provided expertise to reparation of a very poor tiling job in our en suite carried out by another company not associated with him. Andy was reliable, honest and provided a lot of support and guidance as well as completing an excellent job for us. We will use Andy for any future jobs and will recommend him to friends and family
21-May-2015	Andy has just finished tiling our kitchen and has done an excellent job. He is a lovely guy, very professional, clean and tidy and makes sure everything is perfect. Would have no hesitation in recommending him.
18-May-2015	Well planned, work organised and area cleaned and left tidy. Any problems identified and discussed with solutions offered. Andy was efficient and expert and also a very friendly, nice guy to have working in our home. Also young Andy was developing his skills and he was a credit to Andy. I would recomend these two chaps to anyone
18-May-2015	What a fantastic job. My old crumbling bathroom tiles have gone, the rotten old planks underneath have been relaced, floor heating put in and beautiful tiles set firmly and evenly in place. Andy and Andrew are a pleasure to meet and the job they have done for us is first rate. I would highly recommend them.
