Tom responded quickly to request for estimate and his team carried out the work promptly and really efficiently. Work took a few days and area was always tidy when we returned home each day.

Tom and his team completed a full house renovation for us. The property hasn't been touched for 60 years and was in need of a full rip out inc roof work, rewire, replaster, insulating, replacement bathroom and kitchen, plus new extension. Throughout the project we made a number of changes in terms of the specification, yet despite this Tom was patient and supportive. We cannot fault the service he has provided from start to finish. Great value for money and very professional. Highly recommended.
