This company is straight to the point, honest and they didn't try to oversell.

Stuart and his staff provided a very good service - this is the first time we had dealt with his company. Stuart called out to give us a quotation. He arrived on time and was extremely helpful. We were impressed by the standard of workmanship - they even cleaned up after they had finished!!

The quote was competitive and we've been very pleased with everything the company has done so far.
