Fantastic service from start to finish. Mick very helpful and easy and straightforward to deal with. The team in Spain arrived with our belongings and furniture on time and worked and sweated off their proverbials to move us in within 2 hours. The apartment is first floor with no lift, and nothing was too much trouble. Would definitely recommend and use again. Can't fault them

Mick Cox was the most kind, helpful and patient person to me, would recommend him and his team anytime

Mick answered every question (and there were many, trust me) promptly and efficiently. His team arrived on time to collect our removals and did it all with a smile and unwavering humour. Due to Brexit and new regulations, our furniture had to be stored awaiting customs clearance, which Mick did free of charge without hesitation. Our belongings arrived on time and Mick unloaded everything, again with a smile. He assembled my son's bed and offered to help with anything else if needed. The whole process from beginning to end was seamless and although slightly more pricey than other companies, the service was well worth the money.

We are very happy with the service we got with Indalo Transport. All was clear, prompt and run very politely and with extreme care. Highly recommendable.

07-May-2020	The service was the transportation of household content from Andalusia to Telford. This was a rushed job as the sale went through in under a week and although I was able to identify what needed to be moved Covid 19 made it impossible for me to return to properly pack everything. Mick and Paul took charge and ensured everything was well packed, transported with the utmost care and professionalism. A time was given and they delivered within 5 mins. I can not fault them and highly recommend.

26-Oct-2018	Due to our sad circumstances, Mick of Indalo Transport could not have done enough to relieve the stress we were under. My husband and I returned to the UK, leaving friends of ours with Mick of Indalo Transport to load our belongings. Our removal was taken to a storage depot in the UK, where i received them at the date given and they arrived at the exact time given. A very professional service backed up with empathy for our difficult situation. Personally a lovely caring man.

08-Sep-2018	Indalo Transport moved us from Spain to UK. From the outset their service was excellent. The survey of our property in Spain was undertaken professionally, the amount of packaging estimated was spot on and the collection process was performed quickly and professionally. It took 2 weeks for our belongings to arrive in the UK. We were kept informed of the progress throughout and everything arrived on time with no damage. Mick and his team were friendly and obliging throughout. I have no hesitation in

Would highly recommend this Company.
