With over 35 Years experience of cleaning carpets, upholstery and fine rugs along with using the absolute very best and most powerful equipment in Europe, we are able to provide you with the most thorough & exacting cleaning as well as the fastest drying times available.

Proclene with the help of our highly skilled technicians won the Which? Award of Trusted Trader in November 2016, and shortlisted from over 8500 companies for the Which? Trader of the Year Award 2017.

Our emphasis is in providing every single customer with the highest levels in quality and the very best in customer care and service.

All of our carpet, upholstery and rug cleaning technicians take their work seriously and refuse to cut corners and will never rush a job, quality takes time to complete flawlessly.

Before commencing any cleaning we will inspect each item and provide you with an honest indication of expected results, if at this point you wish for us not to continue, then you simply will not be charged.

We all look forward to being given the opportunity to show you exactly what we will do for you and in delighting you with everything that you employ us to undertake.

We look forward to hearing from you with your requirements, and to answering any questions or concerns that you may have.

Thank you.

Craig Haycock.
Director.
