Mr Paddington plastered and painted our kitchen ceiling and painted the rest of the kitchen with great attention to detail. He was pleasant and extremely efficient. The kitchen was left immaculate after every stage of the work. We were very pleased and would not hesitate to ask him to do further work for us in the future.

Working for us throughout a 20 month refurbishment and extension project, P&L were consistently a tremendous example of professionalism, skill and absolute dependability. They painted every possible surface, indoors and out, and were painstaking throughout. They showed great respect for our property, taking time to ensure protection of soft furnishings in the later stages of the project. The standard of finish is first class. They were unfailingly polite, reliable and punctual. Also, they are two of the nicest and most helpful people you could hope to meet. Excellent value and great service. Highly recommended.

15-Nov-2019	Phil & Steve came to us highly recommended by relatives who had used them previously and we have no regrets whatsoever. They have taken two weeks to decorate an entire 3 bed house even accommodating a last minute request to change the colour in the kitchen. They were courteous and friendly and even managed to cope with two very hairy dogs who wanted to 'help' from time to time. Thank you Phil and Steve for your hard work and professionalism. Would not hesitate to have them back.
22-Feb-2019	Phil and Steve are very considerate when working in your home, which is great as it minimises any stress with dust, noise, ensures things are put up exactly where you'd like them as they double check, come on the day and time when they say and finish on the day they say, etc. I feel that if there is/was a problem, I could speak candidly with them to come to a solution that everyone was happy with and that would resolve the issue. Would not hesitate to recommend. Thanks so much Phil and Steve.
