I have been waiting for months to sort out my lights at the front of my house and been let down by an electrician. I contacted Alan from Gainsborough the same afternoon the job was done. Excellent service and great prices.

Experienced and professional advice. I had complete confidence that they knew what they were doing!

Gainsborough rewired my kitchen and provided power to the garden and in particular a new garden room. All of the men were polite, worked hard and left the place clean. I was kept informed on how the project was progressing and when the men would arrive. I will definitely use them again and have already recommended them to friends and family.

Thank you to Alan and the team at Gainsborough. They have completed several jobs on my home over the last few months including work on my new bathroom, fitting extra plug sockets throughout the house, changing light fittings and adding outside powerpoints. I would recommend them for a great level of service.
