Richard's attention to detail and genuine interest in working collaboratively with his customers is evident throughout the time we have been working with omega3design. He is always happy to talk and share ideas and, most importantly, gets the job done on schedule to a high standard! Hope to be working with him for the foreseeable future and now consider omega3design as part of our team... Can not recommend omega3design highly enough!

This business has provided very good service to me. The nature of a design and design execution service is often such that written instructions are liable to be ineffective and with oral discussion important in communicating thoughts and ideas well enough. This business has been highly receptive to ideas, their development in discussion orally; and it has met deadlines.

Omega 3 Design has helped us design and implement a comprehensive website that is fit for purpose. Undertaken in a friendly and efficient manner. I would not hesitate to recommend to others companies.
