Comments: Livingstone Electrics is an approved electrical contractor, the proprietor Matthew Livingstone completed his 4 year modern apprenticeship within 3 years and achieved Student and Apprentice of the year 2009.

Once Matt had completed his city and guilds course he did not stop there, he went on and passed his inspection and testing, PAT Testing, Aico fire installer and many other courses. This means Matt has put a lot of time and effort into training to make sure he is always at the top of the electrical industry.

Matt soon joined Napit and with his qualifications he could become an approved contractor straight away, meaning that he is able to carry out work in all areas of Domestic and Commercial Electrical installation. His experience has been gained over time working with an electrical distribution company, small and large companies as well as working for a solar energy company. This means he can give his customers the best possible service backed up with the knowledge to carry out the work correctly and safely.

At Livingstone Electrics we pride ourselves on offering an excellence service, and will meet all of your Electrical requirements to the highest standard. We offer free advice and quotes to everyone.
