Neil was energetic and chatty. I initially called him out to fix a leak in the kitchen and I thought while he was there I'll ask him to look at the bathroom sink and toilet flush which he sorted quickly. He seemed like an honest man, open and friendly. Would recommend him.

Neil has been consistently reliable over the number of years when we have had need to call upon his services. He has been prompt and efficient, as well as very knowledgeable in his work. He is also friendly and is always willing to chat to us. He is recommended without reservation.

Neil has done work in my home on three occasions. He sourced quality products and provided good solid workmanship. He took problems in his stride, for example, made good the unexpected pothole left from the removal of my toilet. His timekeeping was good. His plumbing advice to me proved sound. Waste was removed quickly. I was comfortable with him in my home. However, the thing that stood out for me mostly is that Neil listened. He took good note of my requirements and delivered far better than my expectations. Would I recommend him? definitely!

Excellent service. Neil arrived on schedule and replaced our bathroom ceiling exactly as requested, overcoming a tricky problem along the way. He also replaced a tile that had been removed to fix our underfloor heating. He did a great job. We would definitely use him again and recommend him to our friends.

I have employed Neil Smith on a number of occasions over the past year or so on a variety of plumbing jobs, which included replacement fittings (internal and external), repairs and installation of a heated towel rail. Neil has been completely reliable and trustworthy, keeping to times agreed for visits and effecting the repairs to complete satisfaction. He was also extremely helpful during an emergency call with a major water leak at a relatives and was on site inside an hour. I would have no hesitation in recommending Neil and consider him to be my 'go-to person' for plumbing work and queries.

Mr Smith solved a really tricky problem, to replace a corroded leaking expansion tank, where the thread linking it to the main hot water tank was jammed tight. Then when the seal leaked overnight he turned out on a Sunday morning and came up with an alternative solution that fixed the problem. Considering the difficulty of the job his charge was very reasonable.

Neil is a reliable and trustworthy worker. He kept in touch concerning a date for carrying out the work and turned up as promised on time. He re-grouted and re-sealed part of a very mouldy walk-in shower and made it look as good as new, leaving it with an excellent finish. I would thoroughly recommend him.
