Michael Fletcher was extremely personable, professional and diligent. He was very adept at fitting a bespoke bathroom for us, including careful carpentry, plumbing and tiling. He was great at solving issues and problems that we discovered in the old bathroom, and being proactive about sorting them out. Thank you Michael - highly recommended.

Michael is an excellent craftsman. He has basically helped us renovate our whole house. He has built cupboards, shelves, understairs cupboards, rehung doors, refitted door handles and installed locks. He is a master at coving and skirting boards. He price is always reasonable and he is so careful with his work. Everything is finished perfectly and he communicates really well with his clients. After a whole year of working on this house, we've gone back to Michael time after time because we really trust him and admire 30-Jul-2021	Please change the rating to excellent rather than very good! Micheal is a very diligent person who I personally rate very highly as a human being. His work and eye for the detail is excellent, as well as his cleanliness within the home. So far I have had shelves and a wardrobe built from scratch and most recently he extended our loft hatch and installed the ladder. On all accounts his work was fantastic, done to budget and timings. I would thoroughly recommend Michael.

05-May-2021	Michael has produced excellent workmanship for me over the space of 15 years. His fitting skills (kitchen) are excellent, his attention to detail is very high and he is by far and away the most polite, courteous and professional tradesperson I have encountered in Bath. Michael has completed the installation of period coving in my flat which is part of a Grade II listed Georgian house. Michael is highly skilled and very experienced, he is a problem solver and will always come up with a solution to deliver the very highest quality, authentic work. He is a true craftsman. Michael is polite, trustworthy, educated and very easy to get along with, he leaves the home spotlessly clean, he is punctual, reliable and has high standards. I cannot recommend him highly enough.

25-Oct-2020	Michael fitted our kitchen, made and fitted shelves from oak worktop offcuts, and fitted a sliding door with pelmet. His communication was very courteous and timely, and his quote was competitive. We had some unexpected additional costs, but these were discussed transparently and were quite reasonable. His standard of work is excellent, and we are delighted with the final result. We would not hesitate to recommend Michael.
