Very polite, efficient and helpful from first phone enquiry to completion of work. Will be using this company for all plumbing and heating work from now on.

Bracknell Plumbing provided me with a first class service of work and cleaning up afterwards. I would cheerfully recommend them and have done so again.

Prompt call out and quotation. Very nice young man who came to look at the work and also complete the job. Dust sheets put down everywhere and job carried out to my complete satisfaction. Very nice to deal with on the phone, too. Highly recommended.
