Driveway not built to the agreed width. Despite agreeing to come back to re-sand the driveway to fill in the gaps he has since avoided contact with me. His team are good, skilled people but the Trader himself does not deliver what is agreed and fails to pick up the phone when discussing aftercare problems. He needs to send out his team to rectify the shortcomings which is not a lot of effort. The driveway that was built was to a good standard - but it was smaller than was agreed and insufficient sand brushed into the block paving gaps which he is not completing.
