Very prompt & efficient service.

01-Aug-2020

We needed to replace a reproduction oak tv cabinet with a bespoke unit made to extremely tight specifications because of limited space. These were followed precisely and we are delighted with the final product which is beautifully made and fits into our room perfectly. Nick was very helpful throughout in difficult circumstances due to the restrictions imposed by lockdown. This is our second purchase from Early Oak Reproductions and and we had excellent service then, as now.

06-Jul-2020

The order was mislaid in their system so delivery took longer than we were originally told, but the end result is perfect. Response from business: Unfortunately the order to our workshops was mislaid, a first for us I believe in over 10 years! However, once spotted the workshops pulled out all the stops and actually managed to get our clients bespoke TV stand completed within our 8-12 week guideline. Delivery was also completed (on this occasion personally between ourselves and our workshop over a 240 mile round trip) within the quoted usual 2 week time slot and, moreover, during the height of the COVID-19 Lockdown, which had caused our normal carriers to temporary cease all operations.

21-Jan-2019	We initially searched the internet to find the type of furniture we required and decided to visit Early Oak Reproductions which is some distance from our home. We were impressed with the quality of the furniture - ordering bespoke dining room furniture. Nick at Early Oak Reproductions kept us informed of progress. The furniture is beautiful, we are extremely pleased with it and the service received.
20-Dec-2018	Nick opened his showroom especially for us on a very wet weekend just before Christmas, this meant we were able to chose and take home a beautiful table on the day! We loved the selection and quality of furniture so will definitely be returning!

22-May-2018	We have always received excellent service and after-care from Nick Berry at Early Oak Reproductions. On this occasion, our table needed to be taken away for repair - this was done without fuss and with no charge. The only reason for giving a mark of 9, rather than 10, for the overall service is because the fixing screws which we definitely remember handing to the delivery crew (in a marked envelope) when they collected the table did not come back with the table when it was returned. They had gone missing. Nick Berry very quickly followed this up, checking with the delivery company and, when they couldn't be found, he immediately ordered new ones which arrived with us within a couple of days.
