Andy fitted my kitchen and bathroom and did an excellent job. He was courteous and hard-working. He turned up on time on the day he said he would (very rare in my experience). He stopped only to have half an hours lunch or to answer any questions I had. He tidied everything up at the end of each day. My house was built not long after the war and so contained many faults but Andy always knew a way round it and was very innovative and inventive. I was delighted with his work and I am now having my garage renovated and of course I asked Andy to do it. I am a very satisfied customer.
