Excellent service will use them again.

Have been using Taskforce for a number of years for our central heating maintenance/problems and continue to do so due to their high levels of efficiency and trustworthiness.

Easy to book appointment (& given an appointment time, not a whole morning). Even rang as he was running 10 minutes late. Pleasant and presentable engineer. Explained exactly what he was going to do and got on with the job. Also very tidy, cleaned up after himself. Impressed.
