Rob and Steve are absolute professionals and very kind, lovely people. They know their stuff and also are willing to give a lot of advice. Couldn't recommend more highly and we will use their services again without second thought.

Arrived on time and got on with the work straight away of installing a couple of outside lights and fixing a problem with the power supply to the garage. Gave good advice on another job I was considering having done. I would definitely use this company again. Very pleased with the standard of work and the costs

All the way through the process, they did what they said they would do, from quoting to doing the actual job. On time, no fuss, managed my expectations throughout. Good guys, overcame some challenges on the day, worked with me, excellent stuff. Good job. Recommend.
