From the initial surveying which was done at fairly short notice, to the on the day move, the team were fair and professional at all times. The delivery was completed according to plan very efficiently and with big smiles.

Excellent - they kept me informed, called the day before, came in time and did everything they said they would.

Excellent service at every stage in the process, from the initial quotation to the removals (two in our case) and the storage. Very professional, friendly, courteous, helpful, and very willing to accommodate any special needs. It was a pleasure to deal with people who really care about doing a good job. Very pleased with the service and very happy to recommend to others.
